

Los Angeles Times

Keep your shirt on -- and cuddle up and carry Fido all at once

February 04, 2012 | By Judi Dash | Special to the Los Angeles Times

For lovers of (little) pets, the Cuddle 'N Carry Shirt may be barking up just the right tree.

The cotton-polyester blend sweatshirt has a pouch sewn into the inside front of the zippered chest section that lets you keep your animal companion close to your heart — literally. A small dog, cat, ferret or any creature under 10 pounds can snuggle inside with their head free to look around.

The Cuddle 'N Carry can be machine-washed and machine-dried and comes in black, blue or camel. For an extra fee, you can even have the shirt personalized with one or two lines of text, up to eight characters each, so you can identify the occupant or express something witty from the kitty, or whomever.

The shirt costs $69.95; to personalize it, it's $75.95 for one line of text, $81.95 for two lines. Info: Info: Cuddle 'N Carry Shirt.